2018 Building Code Information

In the January, 2018 edition of the Engineering Newsletter, the NC Department of Insurance published an article titled 'Update on 2018 NC Building Code'. According to the update, the 2018 plumbing and mechanical codes will go into full effect on January 1, 2019. Contractors who wish to begin using the new code may do so as early as July 1, 2018, with either the 2012 or 2018 codes being acceptable for the six-month period of July 1—December 31, 2018. Indications are that the new code books will be available for purchase in June, 2018. You may click here to read the Engineering Newsletter on the NCDOL website.

The licensing examinations administered by the Board are based upon the code in effect at the time of the examination. The Board staff must obtain the new code books (Administration, Plumbing, Fuel Gas, Mechanical, & Energy Conservation) and review the hundreds of items that are contained in the exam question banks for the 18 plumbing, mechanical and fuel gas piping exams that are offered. Any changes necessary will be made and submitted to the third-party testing agency, PSI, who will in turn reflect the changes in the exam banks.

The new exam material, based on the 2018 codes, will become effective on January 1, 2019. If you are taking an exam prior to December 31, 2018, you will need to use the 2012 codes as a reference. If you are taking an exam after January 1, 2019, you will need to use the 2018 codes. Applicants who fail an exam must wait at least 90 days to retest. If you fail an exam before the cutoff date (12/31/2018) using the 2012 code, and then retest after the cutoff date (01/01/2019), you will need the new 2018 codebooks.

In addition to the Building Codes, the Board will also be updating the exams for Residential Fire Sprinkler Installation Contractor and Fire Sprinkler Inspection Technician. Both will have an effective date of January 1, 2019. The 2010 edition of NFPA 13D will be replaced by the 2013 edition, and the 2011 edition of NFPA 25 will be replaced by the 2014 edition. Although the Board is aware that newer editions of the NFPA standards exist, the 2018 State Building Codes reference the editions listed in this paragraph.

As a reminder, all examinees must bring reference materials to the exam site, and the materials will be inspected to ensure that they meet the Board's established requirements. You may click here to read the reference material requirements.

Residential Fire Sprinkler Course Offered

Nearly eight years ago, on July 1, 2010, the Board began issuing Residential Fire Sprinkler Installation Contractor (RFSIC) Licenses. While the North Carolina State Building Code has never required automatic fire sprinklers in one- and two-family dwellings, a number of home builders and home owners have made the decision to install them. Rather than waiting until such time as the code may require sprinklers and being reactive, the Board chose to be proactive by creating the license and making it available to those who wished to obtain it.

For the first few years, several classes were held each year to accommodate plumbing contractors who wished to obtain the license. In recent years, the demand has been met with a class being held once per year. As of as of March 15, 2018, the Board has approximately 150 active RFSIC licensees across the state.

Based on the National Fire Protection Association Standard 13-D: Standard for the installation of Sprinkler Systems in One- and Two-Family Dwellings and Manufactured Homes, the license allows the contractor to install a combination or 'hybrid' system of both domestic plumbing and residential fire sprinklers using the same water source and piping system. The system must be designed by a Fire Sprinkler Installation Contractor currently licensed by this Board, or by a currently licensed North Carolina Professional Engineer. Licensed Plumbing Contractors who also hold the Residential Fire Sprinkler Installation Contractor license can then install the system in accordance with the professional design.

In order to meet the eligibility requirements for the license, applicants must hold an active plumbing license issued by this Board for a minimum of two years. The contractor must then apply for the license and successfully complete the 16 hour training course sponsored by the Board. At the conclusion of the course, applicants may take the examination. A passing score of 70 or above will allow the applicant to pay the $130.00 annual license fee and add the qualification to his/her license. In order to keep both the plumbing and residential fire sprinkler installation qualifications active, the annual renewal fee of $130.00 must be paid for each license. There are no continuing education requirements for either qualification.

The dates for the upcoming class, are May 22 & 23, 2018. The class will be held at the Pinehurst Fire Department, located at 405 Magnolia Road, Pinehurst, NC. The cost of the class is only $25.00, and covers refreshments during the two days. Attendees are responsible for lunch on their own.

Attendees must also bring the 2010 edition (red cover) of NFPA 13D to class. You may click here to visit the NFPA bookstore. When ordering, be sure to select '2010' in the drop down box beside 'Edition'.

Currently licensed plumbing contractors who wish to apply for the license and attend the class must submit an application by May 4, 2018. Please include a check or money order for the $100.00 exam fee, and also include a separate $25.00 check or money payable to Floyd Fritz for the class fee. The application is available on the Forms page of our website.

Please direct any questions concerning the class or the license to information@nclicensing.org

Resolution Agreements

A Field Resolution Agreement is a voluntary agreement by which a licensee enters into some type of sanctions against their license instead of appearing before the Resolution Review Committee or the Full Board at a formal hearing. All of the Agreements are reviewed by a member of the Resolution Review Committee and then presented to a Board hearing panel for approval prior to the agreement being adopted as a final agency decision. If a complaint has not been resolved in the field through a Field Resolution Agreement, then the case can be referred to the Resolution Review Committee. During the Resolution Review Committee meeting, a licensee can enter into a Review Committee Resolution Agreement in place of appearing before the Board at a formal hearing; the agreement is then presented to a Board hearing panel for approval prior to the agreement being adopted as a final agency decision. Cases that cannot be resolved through the use of Field Resolution Agreements or Review Committee Resolution Agreements are forwarded to formal hearings before the Board. Listed below are the different agreements entered into by the field staff and the Resolution Review Committee that have been approved by the Board. The information below does not contain all of the facts or details of each case. Specific details of any of the following cases can be obtained by e-mail (information@nclicensing.org) or upon written request to the Board's office.
